

Information for Delegates

Directions from Toronto (Pearson Airport and Downtown Terminal) to London, ON

Driving directions to London, Ontario may be obtained through Google Maps. For conference attendees traveling from Toronto to London, there are several Via Rail train and Greyhound bus schedules that can get you where you need to be. Via Rail tickets may be booked online through www.viarail.ca or purchased in person at Toronto's Union Station. For those looking for a more affordable travel option, taking a Greyhound bus is a good option (especially because they offer a student discount as long as you have a valid student card). Tickets may be purchased online at www.greyhound.ca or in person at the downtown Toronto (Bay Street) terminal and Toronto Pearson Airport Terminal 1 kiosk. If you plan to depart from Pearson Airport and are booking tickets online, please ensure that you have correctly selected "Toronto Pearson Airport, ON" as the location that you are leaving from.

London Public Transit (LTC)

The city of London has a bus system that runs from approximately 6:00 AM to 12 AM daily (exceptions: Sundays and holidays). Cash fare is $2.75 for adults, students, and seniors, and includes a 90-minute transfer (so be sure to ask for one if you need to transfer buses or if you will be returning within 90 minutes). To plan your route, use either Google Maps or the trip planner on the LTC website. Additional information such as real-time bus tracking may be found at www.londontransit.ca.

Other Transit Options

If the bus just isn't for you or it isn't a viable option, there are multiple taxi and ride-sharing services (e.g., Uber, Lyft) operating in London. Simply Google "London Ontario taxi companies" or download the ride-sharing app of your choosing (note: you need a credit or visa/mastercard debit card to utilize ride-sharing services).
